

Clinical Manual for the Oncology Advanced Practice Nurse

2nd Ed. © 2006 Oncology Nursing Society

Editors: Dawn Camp-Sorrell MSN, FNP, AOCN,
Rebecca A. Hawkins MSN, ANP, AOCN

ISBN: 1890504602 / 9781890504601

Subjects: Nursing, Oncology

RATINGS & REVIEWS

Doody's

- Doody's Core Title
- Star Rating: ★★★★★

QUOTED

"This book offers a guide and reference to assist those APNs working in oncology when they encounter other health conditions along with the patient's cancer diagnosis. Management of these ailments can be overwhelming, and concise, accurate information such as what this book offers is very helpful in determining the appropriate course of action."

Lea Hall, RN, MSN, FNP-C
(Indiana State University)

RELATED TITLES

Chemotherapy and Biotherapy Guidelines and Recommendations for Practice

Evidence-Based Approach to the Treatment and Care of the Older Adult With Cancer, An

Manual of Cancer Nursing

Nutritional Issues in Cancer Care

Psychosocial Nursing Care
Along the Cancer Continuum

Overview:

An essential resource to aid in the provision of holistic patient care throughout the cancer trajectory. The Clinical Manual for the Oncology Advanced Practice Nurse will help nurses stay prepared for the many complex clinical challenges that may arise in the treatment and care of patients with cancer. This newly revised e-book offers a complete reference guide to oncology advanced practice nursing, describing medical symptoms, diagnoses and patient care concerns. Updated sections include detailed information on head and neck, integument, respiratory, cardiovascular, gastrointestinal, genitourinary, musculoskeletal and hematologic.

Winner of the 2006 AJN Book of the Year Award in the Advanced Practice Nursing Category